

1 discussion.

2 Now, quite obviously, if you are going to have
3 a flurry of people suggesting last minute amendments, it
4 would defeat that purpose.

5 The question of whether the motion for the 6 previous question is adopted is, of course, for the 7 Convention or the majority of the delegates.

8 Delegate Chabot.

9 DELEGATE CHABOT: Yes, sir, but the motion for 10 the previous question is not debateable?

11 THE PRESIDENT: That is correct.

12 DELEGATE CHABOT: I did not want to suggest that 13 there be an opportunity for debate but simply that the 14 people could have some opportunity to at least look at the 15 alternatives that would be foreclosed if the previous 16 question were adopted.

17 Would there be some opportunity?

18 THE PRESIDENT: I should think that the delegates
19 would be able under the rules laid down to have their
20 amendments printed except in the most extraordinary
21 circumstances.
